

Sandra J. O'Dell – Chief Executive Officer – Elected in July 2010. Ms. O'Dell has been actively involved in the efforts of this organization since 1992. She served on the Board of Directors as Secretary/Treasurer from 1993 until 2002. Ms. O'Dell is presently a non-voting member of the Board of Directors and serves the corporation as Executive Director. Ms. O'Dell retired from The Boeing Company after 33 years of service in the business/administrative field. During her tenure with The Boeing Company, and the former McDonnell Douglas Corporation, she participated in the planning committees for two former Secretary of Defense visits to St. Louis. As a result of her involvement in the committee for the Reagan administration, she received a special commendation and letter of appreciation from the public relations officer of the Secretary of Defense office in Washington, DC. In the past, Ms. O'Dell has been heavily involved in the Scouting program and area performing arts organizations.