

Kinsey Martin – Dance Instructor – Home School Enrichment Center – Children’s Recreational Program. Kinsey studied dance for 6 years in the Philippines and danced in numerous productions including Little Mermaid produced by the Atlanta Ballet. Returning to St. Louis, she continued studying dance at Saint Louis Ballet School where she quickly advanced to the Senior Ensemble. Kinsey continued her training in ballet, Pointe, jazz, modern and Pilates at the Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet. She has performed numerous times in the St. Louis Muny’s children’s chorus. Kinsey has taught ballet and jazz to young children and special needs children at the Saint Louis Ballet School and at Covenant Seminary. Kinsey is completing her high school education at home while dual enrolled at St. Charles Community College and the University of Missouri Extension School continuing directly into a BA in Early Childhood Development and TESOL.